

I

L

E

T

C

FALL 2015

Follow us on twitter!
@CUNYILETC
 We tweet events and wider information regarding language education. If you have an event you would like us to advertise, email us at cilc@gc.cuny.edu with subject line “event to share”

What’s New at ILETC?

UPCOMING:

-We are thrilled to announce a talk by Sabine Levet entitled, “Cultura Talk.” This event will be held in the Graduate Center’s Segal Theater on Nov.12 from 6:15-7:45pm.

-Members of CILC/ILETC will present at the 2015 ACTFL conference on two panels: “Planning Telecollaborations for Heritage Language Learners” & “Language at the Community College Nexus: Surveying the Field.” Additionally, CILC will also have presence at a booth in the exhibitor’s hall.

-Are you going to ACTFL? Send us your title and abstract—we’ll list it on our website!

-We will hold a training for the ACTFL Written Proficiency Test in Spanish, Chinese, and Korean. More information TBA.

UPDATES:

-ILETC now comes with the expertise and talent of Valeria Belmonti, from CSI, as the Associate Director of Technology.

-ILETC is now home of the Center for Integrated Language Communities (CILC), a new National Language Resource

Center. With participation from several CUNY language faculty members, four projects run under the umbrella of CILC: Heritage Telecollaboration, Languages at the Community College Nexus, Online Heritage Arabic e-Book, and Written Proficiency of Heritage Language Learners. The CUNY faculty members currently working with CILC include: Aránzazu Borrachero, Wei-Yi Cheng, Evelyn Durán Urrea, Alex Elinson, Xiao Li, Jenny (Maan) Lin, Tom Means, Tomonori Nagano, Max Rodriguez, Chris Stone, and Laura Villa.

SAVE THE DATE!

Sabine Levet, MIT, co-creator of the Cultura Project, will give a talk entitled: “Cultura Talk: Language Learning in a Transcultural Environment” in November 12th in the Segal Theater at the Graduate Center from 6:15-7:45pm.