

During its 4-year cycle from 2014-2018, CILC—a national Language Resource Center—focused on language education in the community college context, heritage learners, and the use of educational technology to foster intercultural connections.

5 PROJECTS

Language at the Community College Nexus
Writing Proficiency of Heritage Learners
Heritage Telecollaboration
Heritage Arabic eBook
TelePlaza

RESEARCH PAPERS FOR PUBLICATION

7 published in peer-reviewed journals

2 COMMUNITY-COLLEGE-LANGUAGE FORUMS

ORGANIZED AND HELD

2016 – 77 live audience participants & 16 presenters from 11 institutions (5 CUNY & 6 non-CUNY)

2018 – 123 registrants plus 25 online streaming viewers & 15 presenters from 10 institutions (4 CUNY & 6 non-CUNY)

8 WORKSHOPS DEVELOPED & GIVEN

4 RESEARCH TOOLS DEVELOPED AND PUBLISHED

TOTAL AWARD FROM THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION:

$685,074

PERSONNEL

37 Faculty and Staff

23 Research Assistants

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS COLLABORATED WITH

Modern Language Association
American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages

26 RESEARCH PAPERS PRESENTED AT

LOCAL, NATIONAL, AND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES AS WELL AS DISSEMINATION PRESENTATIONS, INCLUDING AT

ACTFL
SUNY COIL
CALICO

8 REPORTS/REVIEWS PUBLISHED